Larry McCray

Larry McCray is no stranger to the deep and endless world of the jam band universe. Releasing his first two albums on Virgin records in the early 1990's, Larry has toured the world, sharing the stage with some of the most important performers in the history of Rock and Roll. BB King, Albert King, Freddie King, Bobby Blue Bland, The Allman Brothers, Dickie Betts and Great Southern, Warren Haynes, Phil Lesh, and on and on. Allman Brother fans have relished in his recording of the Warren Haynes penned "Soulshine" first recorded on Larry's second Virgin release, Delta Hurricane.

McCray fans will not have to wait much longer for new music as the recently recorded, and soon to be released Larry McCray record produced by none other than Joe Bonamassa will hit the universe in March of 2022. The record is filled with amazing songs, guitar solos, and fantastic performances by Joe B's backing band including the legendary keyboardist Reese Wynans !

Look for Larry coming to you soon at theaters and festivals near and far in 2022.
