

Picturebook S

Picturebooks is the musical identity of Fynn Claus Grabke, born on the streets, shaped on stages around the world.

With a distinct sound somewhere between rock, pop, and blues, he has played countless shows and toured extensively across the globe, including full runs as support for Clutch, Wolfmother, Pretenders, The BossHoss, as well as Steve Harris (Iron Maiden) and many more.

Splitting time between Los Angeles and Europe, Picturebooks works with an international circle of musicians and creatives. The project is deeply rooted in skate, bike, and street culture, reflecting in ongoing partnerships with Gibson Guitars, Dogtown Skateboards, Ludwig Drums, and Harley-Davidson.

At its core, Picturebooks is all about the live show: loud, raw, and unapologetically direct. This is not something that happens at a distance. It hits you head-on - intense, immediate, and never the same twice.
